

Atlas Overland 4x4 Adventure Tours

"Founded on Experience"

Atlas Overland is a specialist adventure tour company that provides off-roading holidays for 4x4 enthusiasts. We have many years of experience in both North Africa and Europe and pride ourselves on providing a complete holiday experience for all the family. We strive to ensure that our tours give customers an adventure through spectacular countryside and landscapes but always maintaining a relaxed atmosphere with the focus on enjoyment. Drivers of all abilities are welcome; all our tours are fully supported by well experienced and knowledgeable guides.

Coming Up in 2009 and 2010

Morocco – more off-roading than ever before. 14 days of mountain tracks, rocky pistes and sand dunes. Experience the vastness of the Sahara. Easter Special in April.

Corsica - a tour of this stunning Mediterranean island. Soaring peaks, white sandy beaches, fine food and wine and miles of off road tracks.

Carpathian Trails – our latest tour takes us to Eastern Europe. Travelling through Poland, Slovakia and the Czech Republic, our route follows forest trails, crosses Europe's largest desert and winds through the mighty Carpathian mountain range.

Arctic Circle – this spectacular tour follows the Arctic Highway from the Polar Circle all the way to Europe's most northerly point. The trip of a lifetime!

The Alps – this fortnight family favourite is a great way to combine stunning off-roading with other activities and of course time for relaxation! Fantastic driving in France, Italy and Switzerland.

Pyrenees – our most popular trip is back with 2 weeks of challenging off-roading and stunning scenery. Drive from the Atlantic to the Mediterranean through France, Spain and Andorra.

Tunisia – a desert adventure combining serious expedition work and breathtaking driving with fantastic culture and a lot of sand! Wild camping and 5 star hotel accommodation.
